Cocktail Training Party - Course Description

Event details: If you are looking for a team building exercise for your employees, or organising a get together for friends, if it's a special occasion (Hens Party) or you just want to learn a new skill, a cocktail making class is great for bringing people together, promoting team work and having fun in the process.

Location: The course is held in our purpose built bar in the Sydney CBD, only a few minutes away from Town Hall/Wynyard Stations.

We split our groups up into teams and each team will work their way through a range of different cocktails before they perfect the art of 'mixology'.

We teach you:

- Learn how to make cocktails
- Learn how to cut, dice and crush the fresh ingredients
- Learn how to measure the right amount of ingredients for that specific taste
- Learn how to mix, throw and shake cocktails like the professionals (flairing!)
- Use the sound system and TV connected in the bar
- Arrange catering

Sample the flavours you create as you progress through the program so you know what tickles your tastebuds.

Our cocktail making event makes the perfect recipe for a great hens party, birthday do, team building event or just an extra special night out!

Get exclusive venue hire, your own Barman / Trainer plus a waiter ... From $80 per person for up to 3hrs of training.

For full event pricing and availability please email us your requirements and our events co-ordinator will contact you.
